Hello Folks:

Well I am here. Got here about 9:30 that night. I got nearly to Vandalia and I happened to think that I should have eaten. So when I got this side of Vandalia I stopped and ate. Yesterday we hauled straw all day. We run out of straw about 8:30 and had to quit. They were behind schedule with their baling so I got in on it. They were going to bale Sat. but didn't get to it and then it rained (more than in Lansing) so they didn't bale until Wed. They had just 200 bales. Today I felt like I had handled straw yesterday. Say what do you think of our Rocks.

Today we done a little cleaning.

I am not particularly stuck on the place yet. It wouldn't be bad if they kept the black ones away. But they are pretty thick around here. Your nearest neighbors are black.

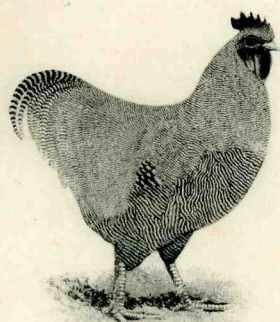

But there is a white family in the township. The black ones around here aren't very black and are quite decent I guess. Ask Lynn Gardner if he knows Green Allen. He is black. He says he knows Gardner like a book. He is staying across the road here now. Mr. Sewell was out yesterday. I guess he would rather be running it, and in fact tries to.

They have some plenty expensive

most of it was worked out in an office.
I hardly know where to address this.
How is my little girl and boy?
I don't know when I will be up.
Write when you can.
