

Geo. Delamarter, the rag buyer, met with a serious accident last Friday morning on State street. He was driving down Western Avenue when the horses took fright and ran away. They turned down State street when the rig was overturned and Mr. Delamarter fell underneath the heavy box. Schuyler Farrell was a short distance behind him and hastened to his assistance. Mr. Farrell secured a scantling and raised the box sufficiently to release him. He assisted him to his house and Mr. Chapman was sent for. Mr. Delamarter was terribly cut about the head and body and it may be that he is injured internally. When picked up he was unconscious.

7-27-1898