

Wills County Clerk Office, City of Kingston, New York.

Delameter, David of Kingston. (No. 23, in History of Harlem.)

Will dated September 23, 1769.

Unto my son David Delameetter my large Dutch Bible, Sleouting gun, Sword, Belt and Cane in lieu and sted of anything he might claim as being my heir at Law.

To my daughter Sara De Lamatter one half of all my lands and tenaments at or near Platte Kill in Newburrow Precinct in Ulster Co., as also all that lot of land or home Lott in Kingston between Lotts of Cornelius Swart, John Beekman and Sara Ten Brouck as also two Acres or one morgan of land commonly called Armboury adjoyning the Kings highway leeding from Kingston to the Strand between the lots of Jan Mc Leen and Cornelius Masten as also my Negro Whinch Deian and Negrow beay Mings, my large Cupboard, large looking glass and my best bedsted and all Bed Cloathes with Curtains - six best chairs and large joihers Table and to have so much more of my house hold furniture as to make and out set to what my Daughter Catharine has had and also two milch cows, one Ox and one Haffer as also the sum of L 162.10.

Unto Daughter Catharine the wife of Jacob Delamatter, one half of all my lands and Tenament at or near the Platte Kill in the Precinct of Nueburrow, also my Negro Winch named Deen and negro man named Tene as also the sum of L162.10.

Unto my son David all my wearing apparel and two of my best Horses, my Waggon, Slay, Flows, Harrows and all my farming utensels of all kinds as also my bed bolster and pillows and Rugg and Blanketts which is standing in my Cold Shop or outleatts, also one Milch Cow, one Ox and one Heffer, my negrows Dick and Anna.

Unto my son David De Lamater my Dwelling House and Lott of Ground as also all my Lands and Tenants in Kingston Excepting the Home Lott and two Acres of Armoury given to my Daughter Sara for which David shall pay to my daughters Sara and Catharine L250 five years after my Decease to daughter Sara L25 yearly for five years.

Unto my daughter Sara out of the House and Lot which I have herein above devised to my son David one room in my dwelling house to wit, the Chamber and liberty of passing trough the butry and gangway and also to have as much room in the Cellar and left as she shall have Occasion for as long as she shall remain single or Unmarried.

Unto my two daughters Sarah and Catharine all the rest and residue of my house hold furniture.

Unto my son David half of all my Crops now sowed and that he shall have the use of all my Slaves Negrows and Whinches until he has gathered in the crops now Sowed and to make use of my Cretures for Killing and Viggetables until that time.

Unto my three children David, Sara and Catharine all the rest and Residue of my Personal Estate. Survivors to divide share of deceased Children.

Son David Delamatter and friend Dirck Wynkoop Junr appointed Executors.

Signed by testator. Witnesses; Jacobus DeLameter - Jacob Schriver, D. Wynkoop Junr.

Will of David De Lamatter, September 23, 1769. (continued.)

Sept. 3, Tuesday 1790 before Dirck Wynkoop Esq., first Judge, Jacob De Lametter, Esq., one of the Judges and Johannis Snyder, Esq., one of the Assistant judges appeared Jacob Snyder proving the Will Agreeable to Act of the Legislature of the State of N. Y. passed 4th. day April 1786

Arme bowerij - poor land.

David Delamater was son of Abraham De Lamater q.v. and married May 10, 1728, Laurentia (Louwernsjen) Ten Breeck.

- |   |           |       |                 |  |
|---|-----------|-------|-----------------|--|
| 1 | Abraham   | bapt. | March 2, 1729   | d.y.                                     |
| 2 | Zara      | "     | Feb. 18, 1733   |  |
| 3 | Johannes  | "     | April 20, 1735, | married Oct. 20, 1764, Catharine         |
| 4 | Cornelis  | "     | May 19, 1737    | Van Vliet.                               |
| 5 | Jacobus   | "     | Oct. 14, 1739   |  |
| 6 | Zara      | "     | March 28, 1742  |  |
| 7 | David     | "     | June 16, 1744,  | married Nov. 5, 1763, Sara Hoffman       |
| 8 | Abraham   | "     | Feb. 22, 1747   | died Oct. 30, 1815.                      |
| 9 | Catharine | "     | Nov. 27, 1748,  | married April 14, 1768, Jacob Delamater. |