*"Strength and beauty you will find
'Midst the press of mortal kind,
And new vigour for your art
In the throbbing human heart.
Where men live and love and die,
There is room enough to sing,
'Twixt the crowded street and sky,
Room for flight of strongest wing,
No song's pinions ever can
Quite out-soar the heart of man!"*
