

Howell's 1922 graduating class

Howell High School's Class of 1922 held its 55th reunion with a 12:30 luncheon at the First United Methodist Church in Howell on Thursday, May 26. Of the 56 persons who made up the original graduating class, 35 are still alive and 23 attended. This was the first class to produce a "Torch" yearbook, which is still put out annually by the school. At the 50th reunion in 1972, the class instituted the Francis of Assisi annual scholarship. Plans are being considered to create a fund that will continue the scholarship perpetually. Class members who attended were: Front row, left to right, Winfield Line, Eugenia VanSyckel Delamarter, Dale Vrooman Eaton, Florence Barber
