

Feb. 22, 1932.

Dear Eugenia,

It is now nearly 9:30. We have got home from meeting, mother is writing Louisa so I thought I had better write you.

We did not wash today. Uncle Lynn was down this morn and said we would move the Piano right after dinner. So we got our dinner a going and then sit down to wait for them to come to go to farm after it. We waited until after 2:00 o'clock so we got our dinner at just 4:00 o'clock. So we didn't get supper. Mother popped some corn and I have eaten profusely of it since I got home and then think I will have a glass of milk and call it sufficient to sleep on.

Think we will wash tomorrow.

Then if Wed. bids fair to a good day we will go to Hamwell after license.
As Friday is a Aid dinner at Church. Sat mite I have my class party here, and Sunday we expect Uncle Wills & Uncle Hart down for dinner. So you see we have a full week.

I am going to be able to keep my car upon the Hill. I am in hopes to soon go but for some reason a vacancy isn't very popular.

Mother is feeling some better.
As she has been resting quite a lot.

We havent heard from Louisa,
Hope to hear soon.

We are having quite good crowds at meetings.

Courtland Sweets mother is quite sick at Courtlands. Robert was out tonight.

Now about business. Yattley doesn't seem to come across.

When is ~~the~~ his note due.

Uncle Lynn says he doesn't advise taking that stuff of Ahrens and going to all that bother. He says Mrs Wylie is the signer she is holding and can come across.
He said he would look into it but he thinks that she should pay, then we can turn the note over to her and she can take the property if she so desires.

~~Do you remember when they~~
~~we don't know of any other money~~
we can get, in now.

Emerson Kinsey is always inquiring how you are. Ha! Ha!
In fact everyone is inquiring about you.

That 5 dollar check you gave mother she didn't cash.
She is holding it yet.

We can use it later. But don't worry that she will cash it when there is no money in bank for I will look out for that and inquire of Mr Hawlett if there is any there before she cashes it. If there doesn't happen to be any there for a space of time we will send the check back to you if you wish ^{us} to do so.

Can think of no more so will close with love

Marjorie
