

Myrtle Reichert And Everett G. Anderson Wed Sunday at Hobart

Bouquets of flowers and ferns were used to add effectiveness to the altar of First Methodist Episcopal church in Hobart Sunday afternoon where was solemnized the wedding of Myrtle Reichert and Everett G. Anderson, popular with a wide group of Hobart and Crisman friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reichert, of Hobart. Mr. Anderson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson, of Crisman.

Rev. C. A. Brown, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony at 4 o'clock in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the couple.

Carlton Kline, of Valparaiso, and Robert Reichert, of Hobart, assisted at the church, directing the guests to their seats.

The bride chose her sister, Miss Florence Reichert, as a pretty maid of honor. Miss Reichert appeared in an attractive tea rose lace gown. She wore a becoming off the face hat and her bouquet was fashioned of Johanna Hill roses.

The two pretty bridesmaids, Miss Helen Anderson, sister of the bride, and a student at Hall State Teachers' college, and Miss Janice Kruse, of Hobart, wore gowns of aqua lace with matching hats and carried arm bouquets of pink roses. Arlene Carpenter, of Valparaiso, was flower girl, and Charles Magnuson, of Hobart, ring bearer.

Theodore Sampson, of Garyton, served the groom as best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a lovely snow-white satin gown made full length with long train. Her tulle veil, with crown edge in satin, fell from a bandeau of lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, sweet peas and ferns.

Bridal music was played during the ceremony by the church organist. Miss Leota Flick, of Hobart sang "Because," and "I Love You Truly." The church choir sang "The Bells of St. Mary's."

The wedding was followed by a dinner at the Masonic hall in Hobart for 150 guests.

The bride is active in church work at Hobart and also directed a girls' club there. She was graduated from the Hobart high school and was employed in the Kresge store in Gary.

Mr. Anderson is a graduate of the Portage Township high school at Crisman, and is employed in the offices of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Works at Indiana Harbor. He is a member of the Arlon Men's chorus in Gary.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have left for a short honeymoon trip in the south, and will be at home on South Garfield avenue, Hobart, after their return.

The young couple received a number of beautiful gifts from relatives and friends.
