

■ CAROLYN H. MAVELLE

▼ Obituary

Carolyn H. Mavelle, 70, Bradenton, died Sept. 11, 2003, at home. She was born Sept. 15, 1932, in Grosse Pointe, Mich., and came to Bradenton in 1988 from Bay City, Mich. She was a Realtor with Carolyn Hall Realty and past president of the Board of Realtors in Bay County, Mich. She was a member of Ironwood Ladies Golf Association and a former member of Bradenton 1511 Elkettes. She was a Protestant. Survivors include her husband, Robert; daughters Kathy Czerwinski of Bay City and Jennifer Orsoloni of Alameda, Calif.; stepdaughters, Marci Mancinelli of Mountainside, N.J., and Mary B. of New York City; a son, James Hall of Denver; a stepson, Michael of Denver; a sister, Ann Rathburn of Bradenton; and nine grandchildren. No visitation is planned. A memorial service will be in Bay City. Griffith-Cline Funeral Home, Cortez Road Chapel, is in charge. Memorial donations may be made to Hospice of Southwest Florida, 5955 Rand Blvd., Sarasota, FL 34238.

Published in Herald Tribune on Sept. 14, 2003