Obituary

Carlton Lamont Hammond, 69, made his Heavenly journey from home surrounded by his loving family. Heaven is surely a sweeter place since he is there.

He was born May 30, 1937, to Lewis J. and Alice M. (Tower) Hammond.

Surviving is his loving wife of 50 years, Sharon Jean; and his son

Mark and wife Deborah of Delaware, Ohio. Also surviving are his grandchildren, Sharon Lynn, Mark Ward Hammond II, Aaron Eldon Flores and Robert P. Flores of Delaware, Ohio; great grandson, Dane Michael Flores; brothers and sisters, Max (Joyce) Hammond of Indianapolis, Murland (Anna May) Hammond of Midland, Arneth Hammond of Canada, Alice Hepinstall of Midland, and Beverly (Leo) Clark of Freeland.

He spent 39 years working at Sonoco Products (Continental Can) retiring in 1995. He was a lifetime member of the Mt. Haley Church of God where he served on the board of trustees and was song leader. He spent many happy years at Charlevoix Family Camp, serving on the board of trustees and also managing the camp for two years. He loved children and delighted in his portrayal of Santa Claus, both at the Mall and at private parties. His most recent endeavor was driving cars for Midland Ford where he made a host of new friends.

Private committal services have taken place in Poseyville Cemetery. Memorial services will take place Monday, Oct. 30, 2006, at 1 p.m. at the Mt. Haley Church of God, 2184 South Homer Road with the Pastor Gary Mize and the Pastor Nick Clark officiating.

Carlton's family will receive friends at the church on Monday from noon until time of service. Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider the Mt. Haley Church of God or the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Arrangements for Carlton have been entrusted to the care of the Ware-Smith-Woolever Funeral Home where there will be no visitation.
