

IN MEMORIAM

Your presence here today is both a tribute to the departed, and a ministry to the living. The primary purpose of these reverent and beautiful services is to enshrine in loving memory the character and spirit of the one whom we assemble here to honor.

But we are here quite as much to give consolation, comfort and companionship to those who henceforth shall know a loved one only in memory.

That this memory may be one of beauty, of inspiration, and of solace, let us join in this last tribute, not with a sense of irretrievable loss, but with the thought that out of this experience there shall come something very precious . . . something that shall be a guiding star and a promise to all who meet here today.

"He is not lost who finds the light of sun and stars and God."
