Mundy Township Woman Dies at Her Home on Hill Road

Mrs. Amy Dell Tupper Muchler, age 65 years, wife of William A. Muchler, died at her home, 3104 Hill Road, Thursday, Jan. 23, 1941, after a year's illness.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 P.M. in the Bristol Church with the Rev. T. S. Bottrell officiating. Burial was in Bristol cemetery.

She was born in Flint township on October 24, 1875, and was the daughter of Dayton and Arvilla Tupper. On April 11, 1894, she was married to William A. Muchler, who is left to mourn the loss of a dear and devoted wife. Six sons, Raymond of Flint township, Earl of Grand Blanc, Glen of Swartz Creek, Leo of Fenton, Aaron and Clarence of Mundy township; four daughters, Mrs. Gwenola Poole and Mrs. Celina Sherman of Swartz Creek, Mrs. Elma Bloss of Flushing and Mrs. Clarabelle Harrison of Saginaw, who will so greatly miss a kind and loving mother, who was always ready to attend their wants and ills, also survive.

She will be greatly missed, not only by her family, but in the community in which she lived. She was always ready to do her bit, in whatever was asked of her.

During her illness, she was a patient sufferer, always looking forward to the time when she might feel better so as to take again her place among her dear ones and many loving friends. But God knew best. He had watched over her and guided her through all the long years, when at last her work upon earth was done, God took her to her eternal home to be with her loved one that had gone before.

Mrs. Muchler was a "Gold Star Mother." Her oldest son, Clyde, died in 1918 while giving his service to his country. She was also a member of the Bristol M. E. Church and a member of the Bristol Women's Society of Christian Service and of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union
